

Important Update: Free School Meals

The Department for Education (DfE) has recently updated its guidance on Free School Meals (FSM), with important changes coming into effect from September 2026. Please read the following carefully to understand how this may affect your child.

What's Staying the Same – until August 2026

- If your child has been eligible for Free School Meals at any time between April 2018 and August 2026, they will continue to receive FSM.
- You do not need to reapply, even if your household income or circumstances have changed.

Protections were introduced to support families and ensure children receive a free school meal regardless of any financial change in circumstances during the rollout of Universal Credit and this will remain in place until the end of the 2025/2026 school year.

A What This Means for You

If your child is moving from primary to secondary school in September 2025, you do not need to reapply for FSM at that point.

What's Changing – From September 2026

- From the 2026/2027 school year, all children in households receiving Universal Credit will be entitled to Free School Meals, regardless of income.
- The current £7,400 income threshold will be removed.
- Transitional protections will end.
- To gualify for FSM from September 2026 onward, your household must be receiving Universal Credit at the time of eligibility assessment.
- From September 2026, schools and local authorities will check FSM eligibility once a year, to avoid any sudden changes for families during the school year.

Need More Information?

If you have any questions or would like further clarification, please email the Free School Meals Team: freeschoolmeals@suffolk.gov.uk.

We'll continue to share any further updates from the Department for Education as soon as they are available.