

Reading Comprehension Answers – All about Palm Oil

1. How is palm oil used? Tick one.

- from the fruit of the palm tree
- in a huge variety of different foods and household products
- in the widespread farming of palm oil
- to contribute to deforestation

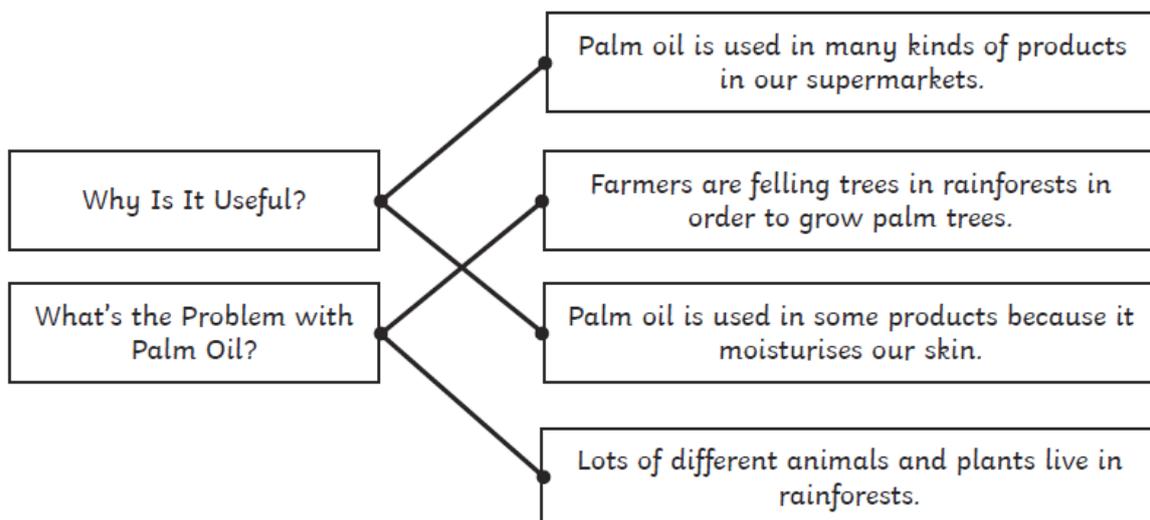

2. In which products is palm oil included? Tick two.

- chocolate
- shampoo
- furniture
- clothing

3. Where do palm trees grow naturally? Tick one.

- in a supermarket.
- in a cold climate.
- in a desert.
- in a tropical climate.

4. Match each statement to the correct subtitle.

5. Fill in the missing words.

About half of all packaged products sold in a supermarket contain palm oil.

6. Find and copy a word which shows that a supermarket in the UK has stopped using palm oil.

cease

7. What do you think will happen if farmers continue to fell or burn trees in the rainforests?

Pupils' own responses, such as: There will be no rainforests left and many endangered animals, such as orangutans and tigers, will lose their homes.

8. Explain why we should help to protect the rainforests for the future.

Pupils' own responses, such as: We should protect the habitats of endangered animals and look after rainforests because they also help to keep our air clean.